The new TUC Diploma in Equalities course is designed for all union reps who have completed Stage 1 and Stage 2, or the equivalent through their union, and who would like to get a wider understanding of equality issues. The course is intended to help reps develop an understanding of equality in the workplace and union as well as understanding current equality legislation and how it can be applied. The Diploma also aims to develop the skills needed to be an effective rep.

The course will cover the following modules;

- Equality Issues at Work
- Equality and the Law
- Working for Equality
- Communication and Study Skills
- Legal Skills
- ICT
- A Research Project

All applicants for this course will be given an informal interview prior to acceptance on to the course
